

ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES

Associate in Arts

Transfer Preparation* (Major Code: 01202)

Housed under the History and Ethnic Studies department, Asian American Studies is an interdisciplinary field that examines the socio-cultural, geo-political, and intersectional identities of Asian and Pacific Islander communities in the United States. This program seeks to address the intersection of gender, sexuality, class, spirituality, and ability with the racialize identities of "Asian Americans and Pasifika."

Program Student Learning Outcome

- Identify and conduct comparative analyses of major themes, concepts, issues, historic relationships, and contemporary issues effecting Asian and Pacific Islanders in the United States through an intersectional lens.

* Students planning to transfer to a four-year college or university should complete courses specific to the transfer institution of choice. University requirements vary from institution to institution and are subject to change. Therefore, it is important to verify transfer major preparation and general education requirements through consultation with a counselor in either the Counseling Center or Career and Transfer Connections. See catalog Transfer Courses Information (<http://catalog.swccd.edu/student-success-support-program/student-services-and-college-services/other-services/transfer-courses/>) section for further information.

To earn an associate degree, additional general education and graduation requirements (<http://catalog.swccd.edu/certificates-certifications-degrees-csuuc-requirements/>) must be completed.
