

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SUPPORT CLASSES FOR MULTILINGUAL STUDENTS

English Language Support Classes for Multilingual Students facilitate the development of communication skills in English. They can be taken at any point during college study for language support as needed. There are no prerequisites and the ESL Placement process is not mandatory for registration. Students may elect to take these courses to address their particular language-learning needs.